The Heritage Photo Collection

Powhatan Heritage Collection

The Powhatan Heritage Project is a hand selected group of historic images enlarged, mounted and displayed in public buildings

(retail and government) throughout the county.

The purpose of the collection is to highlight Powhatan's vibrant business community, to draw attention to the many tourism attractions available, and to celebrate the County's rich cultural and historic heritage.

The Collection is funded by the Powhatan Chamber of Commerce, the Economic Development Authority, and the Powhatan Historic Society.

Selected images will be enlarged to a specified format and the master returned to its owner. All images are digitally reproduced and presented in very high quality in black and white.

This project was kicked off this week with the first photo hung for display at the Chamber office and the second one at The Complete Picture

Questions regarding the project may be directed to the Chamber office 598-2636, or Jill Dewey at 598-5044
Additions to the collection will be continuously accepted and anyone can submit possible entries by contacting the Powhatan Chamber of Commerce.

Our Speaker this month will be Linda Jones

Linda Jones has been a resident and county employee of Powhatan since August 1999. She is employed as the Human Resources Benefits and Training Specialist within the County's Department of Human Resources and Finance. In 2009, Ms. Jones was named the County's first "Employee of the Year"-a title which speaks not only to her work ethic and proficiency, but also to her earned respect from co-workers. Before coming to Powhatan, Ms. Jones lived in the Tidewater area and worked for the City of Norfolk for 10 years in Human Resources/Payroll. She is married, with two grown children, and is a member of St. John Neumann Catholic Church.
